Dear Ms. Pavlova:

Let me extend my congratulations and best wishes to you and your team at Sognando Italia on your upcoming television series highlighting the great accomplishments of various Italian individuals in America. Your show will certainly highlight the exceptional Italian population in America, and the successes that they have accomplished coming from your country to ours.

The unique relationship that Americans and Italians share will certainly be of interest to a broad audience, and I applaud your efforts in promoting the special connection that our countries and citizens enjoy.

Please keep us posted on your progress. Again, best of luck in your endeavor, and we look forward to watching the series when it airs.

Sincerely,

Benjamin Ziff
Counselor for Public Affairs
